Greetings Holy Spirit Parish and Marquette School...

This week I have been reflection more on the "generosity." It seems to me, in some ways, generosity has been watered down. Not the act of being generous as in "no one ever gives anymore" but, rather, the actual meaning of "Generosity" itself. When someone hears the word "Generous" I would guess they immediately think of someone making a donation of some sort. "So-and-so is very generous. "They donated money to help the poor". Yet, generosity is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, so there has to be something more to it. Something deeper and more meaningful to our human existence than simply donating money.

The following Scripture passages come to mind... "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on (your) right cheek, turn the other one to him as well. If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand him your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go with him for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow. You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father" (Matthew 5:38-45)

These words of Jesus Christ speak life into the true meaning of generosity. How so? To be authentically generous is to go above and beyond what our fallen nature feels comfortable with.

Generosity is to be used in humility for the service of others. Knowing that our lives are not our own but given freely to the service of God. We, as faithful Christians, out of pure love of God, offer all things in imitation of our Lord who was first generous to us. Hence, to turn the other cheek when someone strikes you goes against our human inclination to return the favor. In the same way, how can we love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us when it goes against what we feel we ought to do: return evil with evil? Likewise, if someone steals from you give to them your cloak as well or someone who asks you to go one mile go with them two.

To be generous means being selfless. As followers of Jesus Christ we are all called to unite ourselves and our will completely to the will of God. To want what God wants, to think how God thinks, to be living examples of how Christ Himself was when He walked the earth some 2000 years ago. Our focus is not on the here-and-now but on eternity with Him in heaven. Everything relating to the things of this world we are to look at as St. Ignatius of Loyola beautifully describes in his Spiritual Exercises... "that they may help him in prosecuting the end for which he is created. From this it follows that man is to use them as much as they help him on to his end, and ought to rid himself of them so far as they hinder him as to it."

Now, by doing this (acting according to what Christ taught in the above mentioned Gospel passage) we are able to endure the hardships in which they might produce because of the fact that they go against the human grain. Why? Because we no longer have any disordered connection to things created. We use them only as a means to our ultimate end....getting to heaven! So...What is generosity in light of all of this?

Generosity isn't just donating money or simply giving in general. No, being truly generous is being selfless in the service of others in terms of things created or actions performed. It's a complete giving of one's self for the sake of love of God and neighbor in every sphere of our lives; knowing that God, indeed, takes care of us and desires to give to us what we truly long for. I love it!

It may seem far-fetched or downright unrealistic to attain to such sanctity but it is possible! Anyone who is an avid reader of the Lives of the Saints can testify that it is possible to be authentically generous in our lives. God desires to give all of us the grace in order to procure this end. He's ready and always willing with arms outstretched! The old saying holds true, "We truly receive when giving" only this time the giving goes far beyond the norm! Imagine the joy!

Be generous this week!

FORMED.org Feature: "Don Bosco: The True Story of the Apostle of Youth" (Movie) This is the true story of a brave and holy priest whose battle to save the children of the streets inspired the formation of the Salesians, now a worldwide religious order. Having suffered much in his own youth and growing up without a father gave him compassion for many orphans, and his profound charity shines through in this film. St. John Bosco's feast day is Jan. 31.

Augustine Institute Kiosk Feature: "From Love, By Love, For Love" Father Michael Schmitz tackles some of the most difficult topics in the Church today. With compassion, clarity, and humor, he shows that the Church's teachings on contraception and same-sex attraction are rooted in the yearnings for authentic love that is shared by all, who are made in the image and likeness of God.
